We write with respect to your letter dated June 25, 2015 seeking clarification of the news article entitled "Anglo Philippines Holdings in talks to buy Subic Bay property for foray into manufacturing business" posted in BusinessWorld Online on June 24, 2015. The article reported in part that:

"ANGLO Philippines Holdings Corp. said it is in talks for the purchase of a property in Subic that will pave the way for its venture into the manufacturing sector.

Anglo Executive Director Adrian Paulino S. Ramos said in an interview the holding firm is conducting due diligence to buy a company that owns land adjacent to the Subic Bay Freeport Zone.

'It's raw land. We're looking at it from a very long term perspective,' Mr. Ramos said.

Anglo intends to use the land for industrial purposes. Last year, the holding firm had said proceeds from a series of private placement transactions would fund the acquisition.

Asked if Anglo could seal the acquisition this year, Mr. Ramos said: 'Most likely.'

In reply, we confirm that, in accordance with our Comprehensive Corporate Disclosure filed on March 12, 2014, a portion of the proceeds from the private placement that Anglo Philippine Holdings Corporation (the "Company") will undertake is earmarked for the purpose of financing the Company's share in future property development projects.

We further confirm that: (1) the Company is currently undertaking due diligence on the feasibility of acquiring a company that owns parcels of land adjacent to the Subic Bay Freeport Zone and, subject to the outcome of the said due diligence, will subsequently negotiate and finalise a purchase and acquisition of said company; (2) the subject property is characterised as raw land; and, (3) the purpose for which the subject will be utilised, whether for manufacturing and/or industrial use, is a matter that the Company will decide on after acquisition of the property and doing further evaluation and feasibility studies.

We trust that we have clarified the matter. Should you have any further questions, please contact us.
