Re: Reply to the Exchange's Query dated August 10, 2026

Ladies & Gentlemen:

In response to the Exchange's query dated August 10, 2026, Anglo Philippine Holdings Corporation ("APO" or the "Company") respectfully provides the following information:

1. Impact, if any, of the disposition of its subscription rights in AT on the Company's assets
The assignment involves APO's subscription rights over 727,200,292 subscribed and partially paid common shares of Atlas Consolidated Mining and Development Corporation ("AT" or "Atlas"). As a result, APO's shareholdings in Atlas decreased from 28.6% to 8.2%. Furthermore, the disposition is expected to reduce the Company's asset base. On a consolidated basis, total assets are expected to decrease by approximately 44%, while at the parent company level, total assets are expected to decrease by approximately 33%. On the other hand, the transaction will significantly reduce total consolidated liabilities by 86%, and by 88% at the parent level. The final financial effects remain subject to the final accounting treatment under applicable Philippine Financial Reporting Standards.

2. Effect/s on the business, operations and financial condition of the Company
The proceeds from the assignment will be used primarily to retire a portion of the Company's outstanding liabilities. The transaction is expected to strengthen the Company's financial position by substantially reducing both its subscription liabilities and outstanding indebtedness. It is likewise expected to improve the Company's liquidity and key financial ratios, including its current ratio, debt-to-equity ratio, and return on assets. At the parent company level, the Company expects to recognize a gain on the assignment, while at the consolidated level, retained earnings are expected to reflect the reversal of the Group's previously recognized equity share in Atlas' earnings and other comprehensive income. Notwithstanding such reversal, consolidated retained earnings will likely remain positive. The foregoing financial effects remain subject to the final accounting treatment under applicable Philippine Financial Reporting Standards.

3. Effect on the ownership and/or management of the Company
The transaction will have no effect on the ownership structure, management, Board of Directors, or corporate governance of APO.

4. Other relevant information
The assignment pertains solely to APO's partially paid subscription rights in Atlas and forms part of Management's continuing efforts to improve the Company's financial position through debt reduction. The Company will promptly disclose any further material developments relating to the transaction in accordance with the applicable disclosure requirements of the SEC and the PSE.

Very truly yours,

ATTY. IRIS MARIE U. CARPIO-DUQUE
